shaped strong fire more efficient than real fire

the magnetic induction lines to produce a uniform distribution, and at the same time pass over different diameter magnetic coil to form a corrugated heating effect, so that the magnetic cookware heated area can cook with strong firepower.

Imported IGBT

Using international brands IGBT, sensitive and rapid system response, stable power output, can be adapted to the frequent operation.

Copper made coil plate

Higher thermal efficiency, the heating is faster and are more energy efficient, safe to use.

Digital bus control integrated technology

Integrated all-digital bus control circuit to control all functions through a set of circuit, the failure rate is very low.

Double separate duct

Using asymmetry diamond design, dual outlet, better heat dissipation, lower operating noise, ensure overall performance play better, longer service life.

Built-precision power gauge display

Dynamic digital algorithm accurately calculate and display the total electricity, consumption of a single work, do careful planning to achieve real savings, economical and convenient.
